

What Do You See?

What do you see when you look at me?
A human or a sly fox?
Can you see through what the powerful do?
That I may not fit into the box
Created for you to make it easier to Deal with the world around
As the poison and bile build all the while
Till they drown out all other sound

Will you turn a deaf ear and try not to hear
The crescendo of ill-informed hate
Or will you be swept away every night and day
Until the hour when it's too late
For you to really see people like me
As we are beyond the hype
With all our humanity can you show pity
And see beyond the stereotype?
